Mission

To preserve and enrich for present and future generations knowledge of the German immigrant experience and its impact on the American culture.

Learning Objective:

This internship will offer an introduction to working in a small museum setting and will serve as an opportunity to develop skills in visitor services, research, writing, design, and museum best practices while gaining hands-on experience in the museum field.

Eligibility:

Internships are available to undergraduate and graduate students with the following backgrounds: History, Anthropology, Art History, German, Non-Profit Management, Design, Museum Studies, or a related field. Interns are selected by an application and review process, which may include an interview.

Commitment:

Internships are generally a semester long and are offered during Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters. Interns are expected to work 10-15 hours per week. A specific schedule will be determined by the student and their supervisor prior to the start of the internship.

Academic Credit:

Students may receive academic credit for their internship work. A student wishing to receive course credit for an internship must arrange that with their school. It is the responsibility of the student to notify the Museum at the beginning of an internship if there are any special requirements or documentation required to receive academic credit.

Application Requirements:

Those interested in applying for an internship at the German American Heritage Center & Museum must submit the following:

- Internship Application Form
- Resume
- Cover Letter, explaining relevant experience and professional goals
- 2 Letters of Recommendation (optional)

Applications for the Fall 2021 Curatorial Internship must be submitted by August 1st, 2021.

Intern Duties:

Through the course of the internship, interns will have varied responsibilities, tasks, and projects. We hope to provide interns with a well-rounded experience of museum work. As such, Interns will be asked to contribute in all areas of museum operations. Intern duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Completion of Special Exhibits Project(s), determined by the student and supervisor prior to the start of the internship
- Assist visitors and guests at the museum's front desk
- Assist staff with administrative tasks as needed
- Assist with data collection, entry, and evaluation
- Attend specific programs and special events
- Shadow staff at Board, staff, or related meetings
- Learn and assist in exhibit research, writing, design, and installation
- Explore strategies to further engage visitors in exhibits
- Learn and practice object selection and label writing
- Submit written reflections/evaluations on the internship experience periodically throughout the duration of the internship
- Complete an exit interview following the conclusion of the internship
